

Panic Girl Biography

Panic Girl is a composer and synthesizer sound designer based in Munich, Germany. She dedicated her life to music from an early age. After receiving classical training in piano, guitar, and singing she got deep into the production of electronic music. If you visit her place, it is hard to not fall over a big mess of cables and different production gear like a Eurorack System, ARP 2600, EMS Synthi A, Waldorf Iridium Core, Jomox XBase 09, Casio CZ 5000 or various Moog synthesizers.

Influenced by a wide range of music Panic Girl delivers a deep mixture of electronica and experimental cinematic sounds. She writes and produces all recordings on her own.
